

No.	H.	M.	Courses	Winds	Transactions on Thursday th ^y 17 Jan
2	7		N 6 E	L 8	Begins a fine leading wind and thick weather rain attended
4	7	1
6	7	1
8	7	1
10	7
12	7
2	7
4	7	1
6	7
8	7	1
10	7			S 2 E
12	7			E 1/2 S
					Later Part some and small showers of rain at 9 A.M. saw away sicain & schooner standing by the main to the Southward and Westward passed by her People Employed working on the main vessels took a cloth cut the Main top gallant yard repaired the sail sent it a left hand and set the sail out the Sea steering sail forwards to Starboard
					Latet On by Observed 4 th 1/2 N Variation Almond 2 Points West by
					Dr Course Dist Deft Diff Lat Longt Lat in Longt in
					N 6 W 140 28 143 37 40 11 134 36
No.	H.	M.	Courses	Winds	Transactions on Friday th ^y 18 Jan 1793
2	6		N 6 E	L 8	Begins a fresh wind and clearing weather at 5 P.M. took in the lower steering sail
4	5
6	5	1
8	5	1
10	6	1
12	7
2	6	1
4	7
6	7
8	7
10	7
12	8	1
					Later Part wind from the S 2 E and some showers of rain at 8 A.M. shifted steering sails to Port at 9 set the Sea steering sail as per Column and a bark to London standing to the Southward
					People Employed in fitting out straps for gun winding locks
					Latet On by Observed 4 th 1/2 N
					Dr Course Dist Deft Diff Lat Longt Lat in Longt in N 6 W 145 112 102 153 42 34 12 59