

he then went up to barbocks gave him a very flogging on the small of the back. Major & C ordered him to keep on oiling the gun which he obeyed. The men got breakfast after which he ordered him to take the bandages off of his foot which was scalded some months ago the Captain then ordered to put a plaster which he he had spread onto the wound which he did the captain in ordered him to take and put it on different and to burlapone way and the other at the same time uttering the most horrid Curses and Imprecations and kicking of him in the head. Curses, mouth, Nose A great number of times, he then got the Whale line and gave a great on his head he then ordered him to go and draw water and put into a large tub standing in the waist but not being able to draw any first the Captain then got his rope again and flogged him overest the back as he was a kneeling over drawing water after he had got the tub full he told him to get some second and go to securing which he started to do the Captain flogging him to make him move faster he went overest the deck and fell down the Captain flogging of him and ordering him to get up he it groaning and saying he could not he slowly got up A number of times but kept stumbling down forward the Captain following him up flogging and swearing at him When he got to the main deck he fell to rise no more the Captain spoke to the Second Mate and said he believed the Nigger was dying he got Camphor Oil and ment to try to fetch him to but all of no avail as his spirit had departed to the God who gave it he flogged and beat as long as it breath remained in his body By Captain Flower Norris of Martha's Vineyard he was immediately sewed up in an old Blanket and piece of Canvas and laid on were hauled up the Foretoprail laid to the Mast and he was launched into the deep without being read over him or a tear shed to his memory there to remain untill the last trumpet shall sound and wake the whole Earth and may God in his infinite Goodness have Mercy on His Soul and may all who hear of this it warning take Set by Chs 15:118 Song by Chrs 106:38 East