

not have any hard wood cut this fall for me he will buy me some off this that is filld up in the street of Capt Allen Mother is going to take up her Carpet this fall and let me have this room to put my Stove in and sleep in the little room I am paying one dollar per week for my board I shall try Peter to be as prudent as ~~you are~~ ~~when you are gone~~ that you may never have to leave me again for so long a time I hope you will not prolong your voyage over thirty months I feel very anxious to hear how you get along hope you will write me all the particulars Oct 9th Uncle Eliaz's youngest child died to day with the Croops Give my respects to Uncle Richard his family is well I suppose Aunt will write tell Matthew that his niece Sophronia is to be married next Sabbath eve to Press Smith say to Mr James that his friends are well Mr Lemuel Manchester is dead also Clara's Grand Father I wrote you last week by J. W. Smith he is going in the Perry Bush I have three or four more chances to write to you this month Capt Adams & R. Dexter & J. Look & I have just heard that S. Willman is in the Village & is going over to Redford next Sat to sail Master of the I have forgotten the Ship's name however I shall try to write a few lines after I have finish'd this and send down to him as you are as likely to see him as any one else my letters are all about one seramon if you get three or four you will get about as much as though you get all but I think as poor as they are you will like to have them all this I shall send over to Abisha Harding Ship Oblivion you must get the news of the Village from him Sisa is three months old to day Father is rocking the cradle for one she is a great pet with them all O Peter my heart prins me often an account of your absence is it so with you how can I doubt it your kindness to me I can never forget especially in the hours of sickness our state may Angeli pick up from it the words of your affectionate Wife
