

so quiet that I can leave her with the girls for the short time of two hours or half. Little ~~is a great deal~~ I shall call her, if you are pleased with it, as I can get no one to name her, but Father & that is the name I want her to be called.) The day she was ~~three~~ ^{two} old weigh'd fifteen pounds, she is short and fat, and every one says that she improves every day in looks, noes is no more flat eyes has the same expression I told you I should like for them to have. Jedidah has gone from here to meeting, she just remark'd how much handsomer she is now than Harriet's baby, or Ann Springfield that is the name your Father comes often to see us makes a great fuss over his granddaughters, your Mother is coming this week to spend the P. M.
I expect Cousin West down tomorrow morn to carry me up to Eugenias we have never seen each other since you left.
Clara & Abby R. & Lucretia are in Bedford on a visit. Benja came here last eve & invit'd me out with him over to see Aunt Virginia and as my babe sleeps evenings I can go out if I want too. but do not go often, my respects to Uncle tell him they are well and little George was up all the eve as usual Benja walk the room with him to get him to sleep but he had rather play peep eyes with him than go to sleep so much to Uncle, tell James I saw his Mother there she was be niting seam'd very smart. Sarah Blish was here to night I ask'd her if I should transmit her respects to James she said yes. Aunt Lydia says I must tell you to take good care of Mathew Benja start'd this morn for Boston with Abby. Sister Lydia is very feeble indeed more so this six weeks past than common has grown very poor indeed is now mostly confin'd to her bed Abigail or Mary has to be with her most of the time
