

their was some talking done. Eugene told me about all you said the last time you was there, said you thought little siss was something little more than ~~coming over, and that he was not equal to her boy~~ & I think she is not for size for he is a monster the fattest child I ever see. my babe is called very fleshy you could not believe it was the same little child you left if you could but see her laugh & play her skin & eyes is much like her father, we call her Susan Folger. I stayd all night to Eugene's and yesterday morn went from there over to West and spent the day and last night he brought me home, he was as full of jokes as ever, said he did not know what you would say if you knew that he was riding about with ^{me} him I told him that you would thank him for his attention Cousin Deborah wish me to give her best respects, and tell you that she gave me fried pork and onions & brown bread for my dinner I told her it would suit you, I had a good visit and all the good things they could get for me. Sechidah had a party last evening, your father told me to say that they raised the D. C. their untill eleven o'clock playing Kitchen, for a while, he laughd quite hardy said that was a brand new flag. Clara is here this eve she send her respects, think she shall write again to you soon she writes by the Popmoneth all the time I get to write is in the eve after I get the babe to sleep, you must excuse this as there is not much consequence I shall write you by R Dexter Ship Inez & J. Crowell Ship America it is now getting late in the eve and growing cold and I must finish to night and send it down
