

you about Sarah Gray's losing her babe by the Chili I have also wrote you by the Mentor and this I expect to send by the Minerva Mr Brown has got the Lumber on the lot and sticks stuck where to set the house.
I pray that your life and health Peter may be precious in the sight of him that is able to keep you alive on the sea as at home that you may return to me never to go again that I may enjoy as much with you and Sisa as I shall anticipate while it is building. now I expect to be able to go over and give some coun how I want things done & also to help make a garden next summer if my health is good as it is at present, now I must say good night and finish another day. Sunday eve 10th this is the third saturday you have been gone, and oh how sorrow full I still feel on the account how I do want to see you my Dear Husband no one can ever supply your place how much I miss you at the Table, as ever where else your shoes you left to be mended was forgotten I have them & keep them in my lodging room they look so much like your crooked feet I have not been to meet ing to day Sisa has been all day with the Girls. Clara and I have been in the house all day she has been write ing to Wm the news came yesterday by the New York papers that William Mosher had the Yellow Fever and was in Staten Island Hospital his Wife went
