of your getting this. but you must guess if you are good for guessing my great trouble is you are gone and I have ~~no~~ one to enjoy talking with and to lean my head upon and hold sweet communion with as I can with your own Dear self I think a great deal about your wanting me for company how I should like to be with you if I was not such a coward but if the Lord will see fit in mercy to return you to me once more I shall never consent for you to go another voyage may this find you in as good health as it leaves me. take good care of your Dear self for my sake for without you I am miserable Susan
