

Clara is with me ever since you have been gone she will go home next week, since I comenced this I have been over to your Father's & sister's got some milk & eggs, as I walk over the hills the weather is pleasant, my thoughts were upon you & when I got to the house your Mother said it look'd lonesome to see us coming without Peter & truly I felt so. Wm. Cook & Wife has just gone from here he has been married to Harriet Omm about one week, I had some cake & card very nice. They are going to York this week, I did sleep with me last night. I shall move about the tenth of next mo. I have got Cousin West to bring that wood to me that you left on your Father's lot. Mr Brown has got the Lumber on the lot & said to day when he was in here that he could not commence work untill Nov. Lydia remains much the same if there is any alteration it is for the better her appetite is very good & the canker is some better but more helpless. her food does not seem to nourish her body. I have your shoes that you had mended they were forgotten. They look like you, I have expect'd Prudence here all the week to spend the day but has not come. therefore have not seen her since you left. Tell Mr Luce I spoke with Polly the other day as she was passing by she said I must write to John that I had you to tell
