

with them never to go again I know by your writing that you felt bad enough I pity you as well as love you with all my heart when I read your letter to think you had to be separated from me as we both felt so bad the first few times I read it the tears flowed freely I felt as if I could not live to be separated from you two years you mentioned that you wanted to be to mother's going home with me and seeing the light in the window waiting our return, how many times Dear Peter I have come home alone with little sasa with my eyes blinded with tears thinking where is he, that used to go in and sit out with me, I can tell you that nothing that pass & between us is forgotten by me, every walk as well as every hour of pleasure is all thought over by me as well as yourself, I hope that you will not have any trouble with your crew especially with Mr Lewis & Luce I think much about your cares try to get along easy as possible, you will think that it is time I said something about the house I can tell you it is going on fast it is boarded roof shingled & chimneys built and the window frames made but not put on they are now making sashes I go over often am glad that my circumstances will allow me to see to them I think Peter needs watching think he would like to take the care out of Mr Browns hands I tell him to be sure and boss the work himself I think Brown wants to do as he has agreed to I think if you had told them to make the wood house two feet longer it would be better for now
