

Thurs. Cortes July 29 49

Oh my beloved Susan I am once more separated from you in person but my mind ~~is~~ ever fixed on you I thought of you when beating out of the & imagined your feelings I feel no the heart-felt feeling of your anxious person I feel as tho my all is behind but god is the only one we have to look to & with his friendship no mortal can harm. give my love to all your uncle Matthews folks & thanks for pass. I favours remember me to our parents brothers and sisters tel his she must be a good girl and mind Mother and father will bring her something handsome will dear wife I am about to leave you for the present it is most calm and we are off the scold & chiding & I suppose the Quaker will soon leave us but may god be with us both I want to write more but adieu dearest I must kiss it and leave it
