a situation from which there can be no relieve, she cannot follow her husband, neither can he remain behind and for him to leave the wife of his bosom to the care of Whangers and wild Banagers, neither father mother sister or brother. ah Susan you was the wisest of the two your predictions of prison seldom fit in this matter I give you all the Credit. Oh Sweet Susan I hope it is well with you and our dear Boy. I feel anxious but fearfully so to hear from you and your danger will not be pass, when I hear but still I hope to have some favourable news by them. I hope nothing will not deceive you but stay until I get back to her say she must not leave you and if she should not until you get some good help dont you attempt to do any work until you get your full strength and feel fully able and do not fret about the expence for who should I rather my earnings to be spent for than your own dear self be ashur, no one. try and have Susan to be a good girl have her to go to school all you think proper and what you think proper tel her to learn to write & write in your letters and tel father what he shall bring home to her if she bo does not I shall not no what to bring and so she will be disappointed but above all things be a good to girl and try in all ways to help mother & be good to her little brother oh how I want to see all three of you I and once more be allowd the privilege to embrace and you I hope 25 months will allow us the privilege
