

from dripe out every afternoon I find from observation to have those are the men the Ladies like the the best you I don't think I shall ever become a lady's fancy man because I am not artfull enough at least I do not put enough in practice some times I am a good mind to try my luck at it whether I do you say to it wife. I hope you will not find fault with my letters I wrote last for I think I can explain to your satisfaction. My stay in Hilo was so long that I had no time to spare. When I got to Kona I stopped a few hours and off again and there I found my letters & had to answer them all in the short space of 4 hours I wrote about all night and next day put them on shore at Honolulu I had some 20 letters to answer for & from the owners you no I must answer and attend to all the Ships accounts. one of those letters I overlook, I wrote & thought to have replied to. What do you think. They want me to good lying stay the third Season or bring home an 100.000 cargo I form the hundred thousand cargo I should like much was out but the 3 season work will not do but if I do no better than I have done the last cruice it will take a year to fill yet. your signature is my constant compe-ny being dozen. I think you improve in your looks but little to letter Lu looks very thin your pet and manuleys babe look big them I hate but I suppose he will fall off when you begin substitute and to give skim milk you understand me I suppose in you keep up good courage I expect it is all for the best my being and gone two seasons you ask why. less Babies so you see there is some
