I have seen the evil of it in the overeck'd ships company I had on board I don't think there was 3 men on board (except the Capt) regretted her loss or wished for a voyage like it is bad enough to get a voyage with all it try but to be alone it is hard indeed the ship is all painted inside about 1/2 a mile from the shore with her coul-ours flying at all the mast and peak and she looks fine for the best looking ship in port I wish you was I hear to come home with me there are two Ladies just arrived to meet there Husbands a Mrs Hams & Mrs Henry Mrs Henry arrived as it was to write and her husband next morning I saw Mrs Hams at Honolulu by her I heard considerable about the penyard folks I want Cinthys letter bad but cant stop for it I shall probably sail in 6 or 7 days I believe there is some big doings there in Holmes Hole I was told there was a pretty young Cape Horn widow who was very kind to ~~exsert~~ ^{assist} individuals and one that took in visitors at 5 per cent I think they are progressing some in the fine arts I think they had better go with their Husbands and keep out of mischief I also heard William Cook was poor not worth 500 in the new world pride must have its fall
