

Well Wife I will finish and send to Honolulu tomorrow. I have made some small purchases & piece blanket & better fans a piece of plaid silk for her if she is good girl an umbrella for you & one for myself the silks and satins are very hy as they are believed in market carpeting such as you want there is none in market curtains none

I shall write again and then will inform you of all further particulars give my love to the inquiring friends especially to our Parents I shall write again in a few days kiss the Children from me the Father is coming to see them (while I remain)
