

but would be extremely glad to please give her my best wishes and tell her I can in some measure sympathize with her in relation to headaches kiss her for me and tell who it is presented from. tell Mrs. Butler her husband is doing first rate this season and I hope he will fill his ship tell her I wish her much joy with her new comers give my respects ably Eaton tell her I saw S. Andrews. Likewise the signature from the Downeaster as Sam calls her Give my respects to Cynthia and all inquiring friends now dear girl I must bid you adieu and with heartfelt feelings must close my last letter to the one that is dear to me as life and may the merciful Protect-er see fit to soon join us with our children in health tell the old folks I am well and will soon meet some of them at Block Island about May well Susan I am about to leave the shore for those of my dear native land and there I hold most dear. be in readiness from the fifteenth of May to the first of June for a warm reception from your dear Husband and now dear Wife I will close by bidding you farewell may the good Lord protect you and keep the dearest idol of my heart is the earnest prayer of your affectionate Husband Peter, Sommers