

Continued

1836

lat Ob
8.13.21
long in 46.17

Saturday July the 3rd
Commenced with pleasant weather
and moderate winds these 24 hours

lat Ob
8.20
long in 46.18

Sunday July the 4th
Commenced with strong breeze and pleasant
latter part moderate

lat Ob
8.16
long in 46.13

Monday July the 5th Commenced with moderate and pleasant weather at this anniversary in idleness and thoughts of home scenes these 24 hours

lat Ob
8.13
long in 47.01

Tuesday July the 6th Commenced with heavy breeze and rough with the watch employed mending sails

lat Ob
9.00
long in 46.35

Wednesday July the 7th Commenced with light wind and pleasant at 7 am saw the Island of Aldabra bearing SW Dist 6 leagues wind S by W

lat Ob
9.23
long in 45.26

Thursday July the 8th Commenced with strong breeze and cloudy sent two boats on shore they entered the Lagoon on the N side long land of the Island at 5 PM returned with 5 terrapins and two turtle made sail stood off from the Island S by W

lat Ob
9.40
long in 44.27

Friday July the 9th Commenced with light breeze and pleasant this day broke up the bowe boat so ends these 24 hours

Continued

1836

lat Ob
9.05
long in 45.00

Saturday July the 9th Commenced with light wind and pleasant at 2 PM spoke the Mary Ann long in Coleman of London and gamed

lat Ob
9.15
long in 43.40

Sunday July the 10th Commenced with light breeze and pleasant gamed with the Mary Anne at 4 PM toward in company with Capt Coleman for a large whale he was going quick did not get fast

lat Ob
9.28
long in 42.34

Monday July the 11th
Commenced with pleasant weather
parted company with the Mary Anne at 4 PM saw whales toward the starboard boat struck and got stove and cut from the whale the starboard and waist boats fastened at sunset took them alongside winds
this day

lat Ob
9.29
long in 42.30

Tuesday July the 12th
at daylight Commenced cutting in the whales at 7 am saw whales toward three boats the starboard boat fastened at 12 am took him alongside latter part finished cutting and began to boil

lat Ob
9.34
long in 42.20

Wednesday July the 13th
Commenced with light breeze and pleasant weather Employed bailing at 12 PM finished so ends this day