

1851

12

Sept 18 these 24 hours commences with strong winds from the south and eastward the land is in sight and two sails middle part strong winds from the north and eastward and veered with the later part the spine off to the south of Flores Sept the Bark Com Peabody Capt Lamphier So ends these 24 hours

Lat 39.15 Long 31.20

Sund

Sept 19

these 24 hours commences with strong winds from the north and eastward and veered with the forenoon sails in sight off to the south of Flores middle part strong winds from the north and eastward and veered with the later part the same off to the south of Flores So ends

Lat 39.15 Long 31.20

Sat

Sept 20

these 24 hours commences with strong winds from the north and eastward and veered with the later part on shore of Flores at 5 PM came on board again middle part strong winds from the eastward and about with the later part the same on shore at Flores receding ship

Lat 39.15 Long 31.20

Sund

Sept 21

these 24 hours commences with strong winds from the eastward and about with the later part on shore at Flores receding ship middle part strong winds from the north and eastward later part the same off to the east of Flores an number of sails in sight of us So ends these 24 hours

Lat 39.20 Long 31.05

mon

Sept 22

these 24 hours commences with strong winds from the north and eastward and squally with the middle part strong winds from the eastward later part the same low - Faral, bearing 86 Dist 35 miles So ends these 24 hours

Lat 39.01 Long 30.50

Tues

Sept 23

these 24 hours commences with light breezes from the north and eastward the land in sight middle part light winds from the north and eastward later part the same at 7 AM saw sperm whale heard the boats for west Boat started but did not fasten

Lat 39.25 Long 29.00

Whales

1851

13

Wed

Sept 24

these 24 hours commences with light winds from the north and eastward the land in sight an number of sails in sight middle part light winds from the north and eastward and pleasant with the later part the same an number of sails in sight of us to see

Lat 39.45 Long 28.50

Thurs

Sept 25

these 24 hours commences with light winds from the north and eastward and pleasant with the later part off to the south of Faral an number of sails in sight middle part light winds and pleasant later part strong winds and squally with the land in sight and an number of sails

So ends these 24 hours

Lat 39.55 Long 28.20

Fri

Sept 26

these 24 hours commences with strong winds from the north and eastward and veered with the later part off to the north of St Georges head middle part strong winds from the north and eastward and veered with the later part the same So ends these 24 hours

Lat 39.55 Long 28.20

Sat

Sept 27

these 24 hours commences with strong winds from the north and eastward and veered with the later part off to the north of St Georges head middle part strong winds from the eastward and squally later part light winds from the eastward and pleasant with the land in sight So ends these 24 hours

Lat 39.22 Long 28.50

Sund

Sept 28

these 24 hours commences with light winds from the eastward the land in sight of us to see middle part light winds from the westward and pleasant later part the same at 8 AM saw sperm whale heard the boats but did not get fast So ends these 24 hours

Lat 39.45 Long 28.55

mon

Sept 29

these 24 hours commences with light winds from the westward and pleasant chasing whales middle part fresh breeze from the westward and pleasant with the later part strong winds from the westward and thick with two sails in sight of us

Lat 39.42 Long 28.50