

Ship Robin Hood Oct 8th 1845
Wednesday Oct 8th 1845

At 8 AM got under way in ram Island Channel with the Wind SW and some misch working up towards West race to End this Day to Begin the sea Day

Thursday Oct 9th 1845

These 24 hours Commenced with light Winds from the SW and fresh working up towards West race at 4 PM got through the race and Discharged the Boat and stored of SB at 9 PM Montague light bore NW By West 10 miles Dist from which I take my Departure at 2 AM the Wind hauled to Eastward heading from ENE to NE on a Wind at 9 AM saw Nantucket Bearing N By West at 10 AM tacked Ship to the SW at meridian tacked Ship to the ESE Wind South with rain and thick Weather so End this Day

Friday Oct 10th

First (and middle) parts of this Day thick rainey Weather with from South to NW Steering from ESE to SE latter part thick foggy Weather and Calm Men employed in fitting the Boats and so forth so End this Day No Obs

Saturday Oct 11th

First and middle parts of this Day light airs and Calm with thick foggy Weather and fine rain latter parts light Wind from the SE heading ENE and ENE by E on a Wind at 10 AM lowered for a hove fish got fast the iron tore out men employed in fitting the Boats and cutting gear so End this Day Lat Obs 40° 33'

Long By Chr at 3 PM 68.28