

Friday January 22 1847 Throught this 24 hours fresh breezes from the N.E. and pleasant steering S.W. by compass saw one sail the Cooper employed sailing so could see nothing in the whole line I expect very much will be the next Sunday 24

 All this 24 hours fresh breezes from the N.E. steering S.W. by compass with all sail set to the breeze but nothing in the whole line I don't see as we are like to but I hope better will be with us light under once I left my vision the land only knew the land only was much longer time before I saw her but in the course of time so could another substitute the old one appearing
