

Page

Bound to The Cooles Sea

Thursday 22^d

Strong breeze from the northward. at 1
P.M. Port-mach scraped the poop deck. at 2 o'clock
Changed our course from N.E. to E.S.E. at 3.30
In main Royal & fly jib. at four further fore
Top. Gallant sail at 6.30 further m.v. & sail
And at 6.40 doubled the Top Gails and Further main sail and jib

Friday 23^d

Clear with wind. Debating. at 8.30
Shook the reefs out & set main sail at 11.45 Doubled reefers. Fore Top sail again.

Saturday 24th

Clear with strong winds. at 2 o'clock
Winds wind debates 2.30 shook out reefs and set M & S sail. at 11 o'clock a light shower of rain at 1 P.M. sighted a ship bearing South Steering N by E

Handwritten
Bills

Passage to Cooles Sea
Sunday the 25th

Commence fine with wind S.W. &
Had a present of a nice Bill from Capt. Butler at 10.30 a.m. raised a sail. 2 points off the weather
Bore. at 11. saw a sail coming up with us at 4.30 Passer with us. made her to be the Ship Hunter
by Signals & Redford

Sunday the 26th

This day made the most heads for the first time. All hands at work in rigging. at 2 P.M. sent Cutting Penants aloft. Put overboard 4.4 yards. at 8.40 breeze increasing. 10 o'clock closed down 4.4 sail.
at 11.45 a.m. had a rain squall. reefed main Top sail

Tuesday 27th

Clear with a fine breeze from southward at 6 a.m. shook out the reef. set fore & main. top. & Sail. at 6.15 A.M. looked aloft. looked out the after atches

Wednesday the 28th

Commence fine with a smacking breeze from S.E. at 11.
Hands engaged in ship's duty. Ground and ash. 11.45
Lancee will know & show the lines. 1.30 took in fore & S sail