

copy Mr Davids North Pacific.

What's again

Thursday May the 4th 1865

Thursday 10th May 1854. This day moderate Wind from N. ship running off to star, & men employed at cooping oil. sent down the remnants Of the Top Sails and sent up men on.

Feb 5th

This day, moderate wind from N.W. ship steering Off P.E. at daylight. Abner Brown raised Whale, Louisa and J. W. struck, chased them out of sight of the ship but could not strike again at 10.30. J. W. took her whale to the ship and cut him in and commenced to boil. at 2.20 P.M. the other boats returned St. David's bearing S. S. E. dist 20 miles.

Satur 6th

This day light variable air, employed at Winchester and boiling coopering &c &c At 2 O'clock P.M. could down the land in light.

Sum 7

Light air and calm employed at Coopering cask that starts to leak.

Grour Whales 112 2366

Book -

Monday May The 9th

This day comes in with light Wind from W. at daylight commenced to strain for Free hole, at 10.30 Am John Washburn raised a school of, lowered band took four of them to the ship, each boat getting one cub in one of them

This day ^{Wind - Boat} ^{Starboard Boat -}
 A nice weather, wind, men employed At looking, at 12.20 looked on and cut in the Other two whales while cutting the cap - tles.
 The men that we had got Wood 8 lbs and He would give them Dutch Stubs. Let us see how far he will get out of that promise, Strong Curren - setting the net.

Wed 10th

This day strong wind from the west cooled down at daylight. This morning the Cape-Boat The cook to take the men share of Flour and make it into Doughnuts but would not allow them ^{any} Cooper's oil, has a number of squirrels at sun ^{the hole of Keegan} down ran ^{the hole of Keegan} down bearing 1200 - 30 miles