

Remarks on board Barque

Friday 29

..... This day commenced with light No 59 16 trade steering by the 2 ships in sight the middle and latter part the winds much the same steering so ends these 24 hours

Lat 10.55.00
Long

Saturday 30

..... This day commenced with light
No 60 26 trade winds and squalls 10 sail in sight steering on different tracks
the middle and latter part the wind and weather much the same
so ends these 24 hours

Lat 9.55.00
Long 24.11.00

October Sunday 1 1854

..... This day commenced with light winds No 61 from the S and rain squalls steering on different tracks 18 sail in sight
the middle and latter part the wind
from the S steering by the 24 sail in sight
so ends these 24 hours

Lat 9.48.00
Long 25.30.00

Monday 2

..... This day commenced with light winds
No 62 from the S steering by the 5 S. H. lowest down the starboard boat at and went a long side of a ship close to on our starboard quarter to see what his longitude was found the ship to be the "Huntress" of Boston 38 days from Bristol loaded with coal bound to Singapore the middle and latter part the wind light from the S. H. steering by so ends these 24 hours

Lat 8.25.00
Long 26.25.00

Cashalot at Sea
October 1854
Tuesday 3

..... This day commenced with light winds from the S. H. steering by No 63 18 sail in sight steering the same
the middle and latter part the wind
light and rainy steering by the wind to the South so ends these 24 hours

Lat 8.09.00
Long 26.25.00

Wednesday 4

..... This day commenced with light
No 64 26 trade winds and rain squalls steering by the wind to the South the middle and latter part the wind and weather the same so ends these 24 hours

No observations

Thursday 5

..... This day commenced with light baffles No 65 winds steering by the wind to the S. H.
the middle part tacked ship to the S. H. at 2 P. M. the wind hauled to the S. H. S.
the latter part the wind and weather much the same so ends these 24 hours

Lat 7.03.00
Long

Friday 6

..... This day commenced with light winds from No 66 the S. H. and rain squalls at 5 P. M. saw a barque unbailing the middle and latter part strong winds and rain squalls steering by the wind all the wind all round the camps so ends these 24 hours

No observations