This day being the fourth of July

This day comes with light winds from the S.W. and thick rainy weather standing to the S.W. at one Bell hauled to the S.W. saw two hail steering to the S.W. saw plenty of of Finbacks the middle and latter part the wind light from the S.W. the weather thick now and then a rain squall standing by the wind S.W. by S. four sail in sight one of them a large man of war steering steering. all hands having a bucket on soaked bread and beef none up together and I am employed in fitting herub braams we have seen two large Whales since left Fayall have taken nothing and that is fore me I am down in the month I want to get home I never was so homesick in my life
