

874
En Banc of this Court of Lincoln William Brewster Master

Remarks on Thursday May 12, 1886 then when begins with fine weather begins to anchor in the Bay of Valparaiso in company with 7 ships at 1 P.M. we went at 3 P.M. with 2 ships & filled them with water at 2 P.M. the English bark Victoria of Romney, then to sea & he was saluted by the American middle & bottom part of this day fine weather at 8 P.M. 8 boats went on shore & towed 10 pipes & hoisted them in & had 100 lbs of powder & took 100 lbs of oil in two casks & filled them up to go at 3 P.M. & on this day

576 Remarks on Friday May 13. 1836

first part of this day fine weather - laying to anchor in company with the Ships Black & the labour & the same employed in going off & on from the shore & one there & another went on shore & got some fresh water. latter part of the day fine weather the Starboard watch employed in painting the ship on the labour & the labour watch at three or laterally for 24 hours the blacksmith went on shore & made one of the double-horns to cross this day - laying to anchor

577 Remarks on Literature May 14, 1836 these 2 hours begins with fine weather - lying to anchor in the Bay of Beland, New Zealand in company with 7 ships the barbound watch at shore on Liberty & the Harboured watch on the in pointing the barbound Bell of the ship at 8 PM finish pointing the barbound Bell & back off the Liberty men from the shore latter part of this day fine weather Breeze to day, the Harboured watch on Liberty Mr. P. began work at the church with 10 latter part of this day fine weather all the mates at shore & second mates at Mr. May has Breeze this day

570 Remarks on Boundary Survey 18-1836 then Ashland begins with fine weather being to anchor in the River of Palawan New Zealand in company with 7 ships the Master & watch at Shore on 12. White I went on board of all the ships but the Dickie & James (now on 8) & spent the evening on board of the Panther of Palawan at 4 past 9 P.M. came on board & shifted my bed & stored the goods I watch latter part of the day fine weather the Master & watch at Shore on 12. White & the Master & watch employed in painting the Master & Ship of the ship & Black in the lower corner this day

579 Leucis to an alabaster in the Bay of Islands New Zealand

Remarks on Monday May 18. 1838 there 24 hours commenced with fine weather lying in to anchor in the Bay of Islands Oahu Luluai in company with 7 whale ships the barbed watch on a boat & the Husband watch on the ship in painting the Husband side of the ship at 8 PM Mr Cannell & Mr. Richardson came to see me they were second officers of this Letter part of the day strong breezes from the N.W. & pouring clouds the barometer went down painting the Nathaniel Pele of the M.P. & the Nathaniel went at home on Liberty & and the gathering at home & made this day strong winds

500 Remarks on Tuesday May 17. 1838

The 2nd ship begins with fresh winds from the NW & having cleared the Hudson mouth on 11th at 4th part 8 PM I came on board & the 3rd Officer of the bar then with me & stayed all night fresh gales & some rain at 10 PM it began to moderate at 11 it was clear & calm better part of the day fine weather the bar then went on 11th & the 1st match employed in moving 6 boxes water in the main hold & got some oil to go at 12 & carried 2 barrels at 12th by noon this day

501. Remarks on Manuscript, June 10th 1880 they always begins with fairing clouds & A few showers of rain begins to usher in clear & blue the Maiklan I watch on the 10th is fairing from & clearing down to clear weather & the barometer watch on the 10th is about the evening on board of the ship flying by way of Chiriqui but with all the headwinds and wind had a high time at 2 & 3 M came on board. latter part of the day fair weather the Maiklan I watch on the 10th & the barometer watch on the 10th is clearing down weather & fairing the ship has a shower of rain & could not finish painting to now this day.

509 Remains on Pharmacy May 19. 1826 first part of this day being hazy over the at night falling clouds & some showers of rain the Harbour I watch at those on Liberty & the harbour I watch employ. In steering down water in the four hole at 2 PM call it was carrying. It must at there by the name of chuckle knew to get at home. It is his action it was out of its place. latter part of the day fine weather the Harbour I watch employ. In painting the ship & the deck.

502 Remarks on Friday May 20 1836

These 24 hours begins with fine weather. The barometer I watch on liberty & the barometer watches empty. I in nothing such but then at three & four I have of them in the evening had at gun the the barometer was even all here & spent the evening better part of the day strong winds from the eastward & a cloudy weather all hours empty. I in getting off water & blowing it away so much that day