

On the board of the Phil. Cosmos of Edinburgh William Crowell has written that I have begun with a fine breeze from the S.W. of having clouds clearing, on
com. & lay. I in this duty & best building at two o'clock. I have a fair & high the con. of coast at 1 P.M. but it shows of rain. I have the main to sail & lay with it at dusk all night at 8 P.M. under sail & then I off to the S.W. at 8 P.M. saw of large bunch the the S.W. of us killed by the wind but saw nothing more of it before this day. I in washing down & mending the old board.
But in 7 days 20.48 south.

612 Remarks on Introductory Form 'Pul 236'

613 Remarks on Sunday June 19th 1835

6 1/4 Brnshy on Mercury June 20. 1830

215 Pricing Between New Zealand and Tongatabu

their 24 hours begins with it fine breeze the 1st 7/8 Mocking weather. Starting to the South one that off our lee beam employed in this duty & boat building at 3 PM the ship were round returned to the 1st 1/2 at Port down we looked to the wind & found the ship heading to the 1st 7/8 latter part of this day strong breeze & cloudy weather under all necessary sail. Starting to the 1st 7/8 hauled back to the convenience of us at 9 of PM were this to the North have the look running off from the wind the got down in 4 miles of us helped to the wind hauled her main yard at back & lowered 2 boats and a whale were under sail & started aloft to the wind at 10 of PM the men off & taken us it was an English bark London & London 20 tons and 800 barrels at 11 PM of this to the wind of us, standing to the North to cross the day employed in boat building & C. built by B. at 20. 2. 2. South.

617 Bombus eximius, June 23, 1936

Old Remarks on Friday, June 24. 1938