

974 En Bayad of the Ship Cadmus of Fairbairn William coronado hunter

Promiss on Business June 15th 1887

Apr 24 Land begins with light winds from the south & pleasant weather. Steaming to the westward, crossed anchorage about the rigging of John H. & then after noon middle & latter part of the day, light breeze & calm, employed on board doing up heads, masts, the mainmast & fore-topgallant-mast for day, ends with pleasant weather. Lat $42^{\circ} 57'$ Long $28^{\circ} 00'$ both.

975 Exuviae on pond June 18 to 1937

The 24 hours begins with light breeze from the south & pleasant weather. all hands employed on board at work the main rigging but at the four o'clock gullantry and strong wh. breeze under all sail steering to the westward at 6 PM but at the four o'clock most steering sail boom on the four yard made part light breeze latter part fine breeze from the S.W. & pleasant weather. steering S.W. by S. with a four o'clock most steering sail out employed in setting, down the main rigging, strong wh. breeze & latter in by day 27. 09 South

976 Remarks on Saturday June 17th 1837 then 24 hours began with a fine breeze from the S.W. & a pleasant weather - under all fine morning 11 AM all hands employed on the rigging & pulling down the main & fore & rigging, fitting the black straps on the jibs & setting up blocks & making, setting, & starting mill post strong beams from the stern under all fine morning 1 PM at 1 PM the wind shifted to the westward & came on squally & showered fine rather but strong breeze from the S.W.

 & drove by weather - heaving to the S.E. under all men being here with employed on the rigging at 1 PM have hoisted & secured beams 2 1/2 hours in the way each with strong beams set in 3 PM 22.20 but the 24 hours begins with a heavy breeze from the N.W. & increasing weather. at 10 am started back to the westward all hands employed about the rigging got up mutton & Molluscs & went the lower hole under back light down & out into bottom part line down from the deck at 9 o'clock the rain began but the bar. thermometer falling here at 11 feet. Light & breezy showed the very much with it since were & having clouds Bottom of day 22.10.10. Part.

977 Remarks on Sunday June 10th 1837

970. Botwin, W. L. Zealand and Tongatoo

Remarks on morning June 19th 1837

June 24 hours against with the fine breeze from the NW & during clouds were all sail steering off morning in light thence with N.E. boat steered middle & latter part of the day, fine breeze from the NW & pleasant weather under all sail steering off morning until evening is rattling the barometer rising & falling & making rattling stuff & 2 latter is 80.07 North large is 9 thermom. - 179.05 East

979 Remarks on Sunday June 20th 1837

And 24 hours begins with a fine breeze from the NW - all hail clearing 10 AM all hands embarking on the rigging, rattrailing & stacking blocks & making rattrails, stuff. Latter part of the day strong breeze & "qually" weather at 9 PM the wind shifted to the westward the water embarking is taking in hail the day ends with strong winds from the NW and a passing shower starting 10 PM with in 3/4 day 81.30 North.

200 Remarks on Wednesday, June 21st 1827 have 24 hours begin with strong breeze from the Westward & sailing close to standing to the South by the wine was all mackerel, sail watch mackerel on board at 8 o'clock with the landward back to the desert had middle part of the day, more moderate breeze all mackerel sail latter part strong wind from the North was all mackerel sail standing to the North mackerel mackerel in fishing up the old Penn. tobacco latter by day 32.00 back long of distance 177.20

401 Humilis on Peucedanum June 22 to 1887

June 24. Leaves begins with strong winds from the North N. N. W. blowing clouds starting. I N. N. W. went to work up in the air, and the barometer at 8 P.M. found the barometer fell & four top barometer & long to under double red gauge top barometer four barometer & four top barometer. The barometer showed that the pressure was at 10 was 11.5 to the barometer at 12 was 11.5 to the barometer & at the barometer barometer part of the day strong winds from the North N.
 & barometer, clouds starting to the barometer by the wind was well not heavy. The barometer in 2. 84.01 barometer
 barometer in 2. 84.01 barometer
 barometer in 2. 84.01 barometer

177 a. 20 East