

902 On board of the ship Commander of gunboats William Cornwall Hunter

Remarks on Sunday June 23rd 1887

Two 24 hours begins with strong winds from the N.W. & heavy clouds turning to the south-west all morning. Rain at 8 P.M. ended the rain at 4 ended the rain at 8 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.
& rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.

Little part more moderate with heavy clouds
at 6 P.M. ended the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.
the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.

Left in 2 05 34.01 South
Left in 2 05 170.50 E

903 Remarks on Sunday June 24th 1887

Two 24 hours begins with moderate winds from the N.W. & heavy clouds under all morning. Rain at 10 P.M. ended the rain at 10 P.M.
rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.
rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.

Left in 2 05 34.30 South

904 Remarks on Sunday June 25th 1887

Two 24 hours begins with fresh gales from the N.W. & heavy clouds
under all morning. Rain at 10 P.M. ended the rain at 10 P.M.
rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.
rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.

Left in 2 05 34.24 South

905 Remarks on Sunday June 26th 1887

Two 24 hours begins with fresh gales from the N.W. & heavy clouds
under all morning. Rain at 10 P.M. ended the rain at 10 P.M.
rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.
rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.

Left in 2 05 34.08 South

Left in 2 05 177.50 East

906 Remarks on Sunday June 27th 1887

Two 24 hours begins with strong winds from the N.W. & heavy clouds turning to the N.W. the wind was employed in bringing the rain to the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.

rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.
rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.

Left in 2 05 34.40 South

907 Remarks on Monday June 28th 1887

Two 24 hours begins with strong winds from the N.W. & heavy clouds
under all morning. Rain at 10 P.M. ended the rain at 10 P.M.
rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.
rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.

Left in 2 05 34.42 South

908 Remarks on Tuesday June 29th 1887

Two 24 hours begins with strong winds from the N.W. & heavy clouds
under all morning. Rain at 10 P.M. ended the rain at 10 P.M.
rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.
rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.

Left in 2 05 34.14 South

909 Remarks on Wednesday June 30th 1887

Two 24 hours begins with fresh gales from the N.W. & heavy clouds
under all morning. Rain at 10 P.M. ended the rain at 10 P.M.
rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.
rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M. the rain at 10 P.M.

Left in 2 05 38.84 South