

Lat+Long

South West Of The Rock

Saturday April 25th 1883

the fore part fine weather with a good breeze from the N. W. on Star tack by the wind - Rattling down in S. Rigging. Latter part the same nothing in sight

31.15
178.42

Sunday. April 26th 1883

the fore part of the day light air from the S. W. Gradually falling in to the S. E. on Star tack. Latter part on Port tack. one sulphur bottom. Has been seen on Star tack.

32.05
180.10

Monday April 27th 1883

the fore part light breezes from the N. E. Course S. E. C. Carving the main rigging. the latter part a strong breeze from the same quarter. Course the same. Back Alaska past us steering to the Westward. Nothing in sight.

32.36
178.50.6

Over Calling Rigging

Tuesday. May 1st 1883

Another month has come to our view. May it be a great full one - the fore part fine weather Wind S. W. on Port tack. the latter part finished caping the main Rigging & began the mizzen. Finbacks in sight. Fore part got Ropes down overhauling them

32.46
178.50.6

Wednesday May 2nd 1883

the fore part of the day fine weather light breeze from the N. W. on Port tack overhauling the fore Ropes & Lifts. the latter part the same to night Wind S. Laying under short sail. May we get a whale - one man sick

31.48
178.14

Thursday May 3rd 1883

the fore part fine light breezes from the S. W. on Port tack overhauling the fore Ropes & Lifts. the latter part the same to night Wind S. Laying under short sail. May we get a whale - one man sick

30.44
178.30

Friday May 4th 1883

the fore part Rain with light breezes from the E. on Port tack most of the time. Latter part Rain & the wind increasing. Not any thing seen. Under short sail heading S. S. E.

One man sick. So ends...

Lat+Long

No The Westward of The Rock

Saturday May 5th 1883

the fore part of the day blowing fresh gale from the S. E. on Port & Star tack. the latter part on Port tack heading N. E. But, hook broke out. All well

Fine.

Sunday. May 6th 1883

the fore part of the day from blowing strong from the S. W. quite clear. Course S. the latter part Wind S. W. & finally. Course N. E. by E. to night - Under S. W. S. steering the same. Finbacks in sight.

S. W. Gale

31.00
178.36.6

Monday. May 7th 1883

the fore part very squally & a little Rain. Whales seen this morning heading to the S. E. Wind S. W. Course S. E. the latter part Course the same nothing in sight.

Fine S. E.

30.23
178.10

Wind gib

Under short

28.52
178.00

Tuesday May 8th 1883

the fore part of the day blowing a strong gale from the S. on Port tack latter part squally on S. W. Wind from the same quarter. fore gib funnels & overhauled the other head sheets & funnels -

Fine S.

Under short

28.52
178.00

Wednesday May 9th 1883

the fore part of the day blowing a strong gale from the S. on Port tack. the latter part moderate breeze & made sail Sunday S. Raised at 12.45 P.M. Sailing S. E. & goat S on old weather. to night on Port tack

S. Gale

Broad

Thursday May 10th 1883

the fore part blowing strong from the S. Sunday S under our lee & goat S. S. miles to the Windward. the latter part strong breeze on star tack. Not a living thing in the shape of a whale...

Friday May 11th 1883

the fore part of the day. light breezes from S. E. on Port tack heading S. W. Sunday S on our lee beam. fore topsail down mending it the latter part calm. finished & bent the fore topsail Sunday S. S. miles

Under short