

Laying Up. Port Russell. Harbor
Thursday. June 14th 1883

the fore part of the Island strong breeze from the N. W. finished our oil tank was. 13,368 lbs spun & 25,734 lbs. The latter part finishing stowing the meat in the oil hole. 4.30. PM. the fore about of the steamer. Oda. all well. one watch ashore - " "

" " "

Friday June 22nd 1883

the fore part cloudy with a moderate breeze N. E. finished stowing the after hole & a boat & crew ashore filling water. Latter part came up with Ben-spyt gun & overhauled the strops. Cooper setting up Casks. several men sick & in -

Saturday June 23rd 1883

the fore part strong N. E. wind & Rainy. got a Raft of water. got the 2 Casks from the Alaska. Latter part Rainy. Getting up Casks & stowing & filling water & men layed up. Nothing more - so ends

Sunday. June 24th 1883

the fore part of the day Rainy & blowing fresh. Latter part the same. All a little better -

Monday June 25th 1883

the fore part of the day fair weather. got a raft of water. the latter part filling water & setting up the Head gear. several men unwell. - Not dangerous

Tuesday June 26th 1883

Lat & Long

Left Russell. Bay of Islands
Friday July 6th 1883

the fore part light E. breeze. Latter part weather increasing wind N. E. strong. We anchor at 10 AM. From the place we are bound for Anson's Wharf. - H. H. Marshall being absent

Saturday July 6th 1883

N. E. Gale
32.05

the fore part offing a strong N. E. Gale on Star. Tack under duress to sails. Headline N. N. W. & N. W. Latter part a little more moderate. Ben sick

Sunday July 7th 1883

None

the fore part of the day. Moderate & Rain. Several. one Whaler in sight suspected to be the Albatross. the latter part fair weather. Wind N. N. W. Course N. N. E

Monday July 8th 1883

32.05
174.58

the fore part of the day blowing strong & Rain squalls from the S. S. W. Course N. N. E. & the latter part the same one Whaler & a Merchantman seen in sight all day. Stearing the same as we are

Tuesday July 9th 1883

30.40
178.17
2 1/2 Star
Beats
Lines

The fore part of the day a strong breeze from the N. N. Course N. E. & E. the latter part wind S. S. W. Course E. by N. Marshall's Earliest & Starboard boats line & put a new piece on the dip line -

Wednesday July 10th 1883

the fore part of the day light breeze from the N. N. Course E. by N. Latter part weather increasing wind N. Course the same. Cooper making over Casks

Thursday July 11th 1883

the fore part of the day. blowing a gale from the N. W. Course E. by N. 1/2 N. unsteadiness on Star tack. Heading S. N. Nothing in sight. all well

Friday July 12th 1883

31.50 S
178.24 E

the fore part blowing a gale from the N. on port tack. Latter part the same. Lure Cordage 3 in 2 1/2 & 4 in 2 1/2 from a Cask