

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1889

Friday July 21st To day light breeze from north at 2 AM let go the Ice & started to sail along the land got in the 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms water all the Steamers together at 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ PM came to anchor in 3 $\frac{3}{4}$ fathoms water to south of midway Islands

Saturday July 22nd To day light breeze from north at anchor south of midway Islands at 4 PM took the anchor & started around to west & along to north of the Islands passed in 3 fathoms of water at 8 PM made port to ground Ice. to West of Cross Island

Sunday July 23rd To day light breeze from N.E. part to the Ice to N. West of Cross Island all the Steamers here but the Orca

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1889

Monday July 30th To day light breeze from N. West Steamers part to the Ice to N. West of Cross Island the Orca came in the Alexander started to go between the Islands & got ashore at 5 PM got her off again saw the Jeanie with a ship in tow to the westward

Tuesday July 31st To day begins with light breeze from N. West at 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ let go the Ice & went around to S. West side of the Ice & made port again all the Steamers the same

Wednesday Aug 1st To day light breeze from West part to the Ice all the Steamers here saw E. Barks & a Schooner & Brig & the Jeanie to the West