

Among you

ought to take you Gaither police Dept
states attorneys office and put the whole damn bunch you in jail there where you all belong. you would damn nice President, you would make a nice hoar master, get you crooks before long pretty damn tired your hell

How Long?

It is 76 days since a mob at Salisbury lynched and burned Matthew Williams while several thousand looked on.

76

Governor Ritchie promised the state would act promptly to punish the lynchers. Attorney General Lane said he was starting an investigation at once. State's Attorney Bailey, of Wicomico County, said the same.

That was 76 days ago. So far, however, nobody has been punished. No prosecutions have been started. In official quarters there is only silence.
