Die Jovis 11: Aprilis

Appeared Colloncell George Wells of Baltemore County in the behalfe of himselfe & his mother Johannah Goldsmith joynt Executors of the last Will & testament of Major Samuell Goldsmith her husband & his Stepfather, late of the said County deceased, & exhibited their accu: of & upon their execution of the said testament being privy to the ingleadion; w^ch accu: being sworne unto by the said George, the Judge here ORDERED that the same bee Recorded in the booke for Registring of Inventories & accompts in this Court kept, & that Letters of Discharge bee unto the said Executors granted, w^ch issued out & passed und: the seale of this Court immediately.

Die Eodem

Came James Phillips of Baltemore County adm: of all & singular the goods Chattells & debts of James Coyll late of the same County deceased ad intestate, & exhibited his accu: of & upon his adion of the said goods Chattells debts, & w^ch accu: being sworne unto by the said adm: the Judge here ORDERED that the same bee Recorded in the booke for Registring of Inventories & accompts in this Court kept. And the Judge perceiving that on the said accu: the adm: had paid beyond a fleti, further ORDERED that Letters of Discharge bee unto James Phillips granted. w^ch issued & passed und: the seale of this Court immediately.

Die Veneris 12: Aprilis

Appeared James Denton of Baltemore County, in the suite of William Westbury late now adm: in power of Thomas Daniell his goods & chattells, unadministred by the said James, & exhibited an Inventory & also an accu: of the same goods & chattells, & his legall costs & paym: out of the same; of w^ch said Inventory & accu: the plaintiff Westbury approved & accepted; & consented that upon oath made by the said Denton to his said accompt & adion, hee might bee discharged from the same upon payment to him the said Westbury of soe much as of the same goods & chattells to him justly belongs after deductions, in right of his wife Margaret the eldest daughter & heiresse to the said Intestate. And the said Denton immediately made oath to his said Acc^o. Whereupon the Judge here ORDERED the said Inventory & accu: of Thomas Daniells goods & chattells now by the said Denton exhibitted, to bee Recorded in the booke for Registring of Inventories & accompts in this Court kept. & further ordered that Letters of Discharge bee granted to the said James Denton, to bee kept in the custody of the said Westbury till hee receave his wife's said part or portion of her deceased fathers estate on the said accu: appearing to bee due to her, & then to bee delivered unto the said James. W^ch Letters of Discharge issued und: the seale of this Court immediately.