

JANUARY,

MONDAY 1.

1872.

Breakfast at sunrise.

Foggy with light rain, or mist all day.

Considering it is now a new year,
I invoke the blessing and guidance of our Heavenly Father, through all its uncertainties and changes.

I stripped about or near 100 pounds of tobacco to day. Arnold & Boniville my two hired hands, did not work to day.

Simon Ellis who died yesterday morning, was buried to day, at our St. Church. I loaned my buggy to take the corpse to the graveyard - also two horses to
