

A.M.

Dark, misty & cool, A.M. Ther. 40°

JANUARY, TUESDAY 1st 1884.

B. 7.30. Dark, misty, cool

The new year opens with damp
cool, but not frozen weather.

Church service at All Sts.

George Lancaster very sick

Rev. Mr Gantt here. Frank Blakiston came in this A.M.

Have not secured needed
labor for the year.

Fanny & I go to Church.

Jim Easter paid his rent to day, for January. 38

May God bless us spiritually
and temporally, with health
and prosperity of mind
and body!

Our nephew Geo. Lancaster is very sick, & has been for four or five days. Dr. Blakiston attending, but did not see him to day.

Company to day Rev Mr Gantt & M.
E. A. Birch at supper.

1885 Jan. 1st B. 7 1/2. Moderated M.

but changed to cold rain & hail, & N. wind.

cleared in night wind N. W.

Mr Morgan moved to Per to set in to work. I rode to Waterloo, carried nothing to put a window in the

to them. Mr Korman not moved away from home, the most of the day.