

Thur. 30°

JANUARY, FRIDAY 4. 1884.

B. 7.30. Cloudy on shore or lips, making long snow.

Got some wood

Geo. L. seemed something better
this A.M. but not at night.

He is low spirited and desponding. D. B. to see him today.

I rode to the Head of the Bay, & Hall's shop to get some
work done.

I rec^d today sales of 15 turkeys and 2 doz chickens - net
15.31c a mean sale.

The bag of oysters - choice
was not rec^d by him, but another instead through neglect of Capt. Hood, as I think.

Sunday Jan 4th. B. 7 $\frac{1}{2}$
Rain & sleet, a very disagreeable day out. He did not go to church.

Mr Ranney died at Mr
Manders' yesterday & Mr G. M.
was buried at All Sts this P.M.
cold & rainy & chilly all day
on shore or lips.

Ted Burch came P.M. and stayed til 8.

Cleared in night, & cleared again
