

NOVEMBER,

TUESDAY 18.

NOVEMBER 1890.

B. 3¹/₂ A fine morning, but a shower of rain last night.
Fannie & children & nurse
& Mrs Wright to the Str.
Wakefield at 5 A.M.
for Washington. So also did Fannie Blakestone
& children, and Patten &
Bob.

I drove the wagon & Woodland the carriage to the wharf - thence to Waterloo to seed wheat.