

B. 7 Cold & slightly sleety & misty Threshed corn in barn A.M.
P.M. Shelled up all old corn, and cleaned up left for new corn Got in a load of stock fodder for cattle in yard.

Have read the President's message. Don't find that his views as to the legislation of the last session of Congress are at all modified by the great revolution - politically, of the late Congressional election. He recommends a continuance of the Tarceff Law - the passage of the Election or Force bill, and other bills of doubtful expediency.
No exhibition of broad-viewed statesmanship. But shows clearly, that he is in all matters a narrow rounded partisan, unsuited to the expanding interests of our great country.
