

DECEMBER,

THURSDAY 25.

1890.

13.6 $\frac{1}{2}$ Xmas, cloudy & like
snow.

Began snowing about 10 o'clock, & continued all
day, & in the night.

Marshall & family spent
the day & evening with us.
Mr Gault & family, & Blake.

Tom, daughter, Wade & A.

Young Whittier & De Burah

Walter Burah & Eugene Hodges spent evening at a Xmas
tree party to Fannie's.

Mr Gault & children stayed all night, on account of the snow which is falling briskly at 10 P.M.

I have not been able to show
much attention to the guests
of my house, on account of severe rheumatism in my right hip.

I retired about 12 night
