

DECEMBER,

FRIDAY 26.

1890.

13.8 Cold & a light mist falling freezing as it falls. on the surface of the snow, now about 4 inches deep, and melting next to the ground.
Mr Gault & children still here, at dinner. Have not heard from Mr Gault. He came down late P.M. & took his family home.
The night was a very cold night.