

DECEMBER,

TUESDAY 30.

1890.

B. 7 Quite cold & icy.

Fannie, Fannie Joe & I rode up to the Rectory this A.M.
Mr. Elliott was quite sick in bed. Spoke of the the arrangement about the Xmas tree at Mr. E's.
Alice Rose, & Grand son Marshall sent arranged an impromptu gathering of young folks for a hop at my house. The roads being very bad, it was not largely attended, but those here seemed to enjoy themselves very much.
Present 7 Palmers, 14 Quits
2 Bunches, 3 Surveys, 1 Grason
1 Harrison, 2 Blakelocks
1 Irving, 1 Stoddart, in all 32 besides home folks.
Grace D. & her children, and Ida & three children stayed all night. The others left about 3 o'clock in night.
