This my job is a cinch and I have a big Car at my disposal And There's no getting up to Reville and no inspections, no paper work, no Mail censoring, no picket line work, no inspection of grooming and a thousand other things but there is a little old feeling that calls me back to my battery and I sometimes feel that I hope Gen. Craig & Col Foy can persuade Maj Gen. Ely to send me back.

Most of my men are Expecting their discharge soon and I'll get recruits from the States who are here on a sight seeing Expedition and who
