

Nov. 28th 1871
P. Chiseldine

be pleased to have it so arranged - " You ask what distribution shall be made of the Two Hundred Dollars - to be paid by Kelly - in answer I will say, that I have advised - Annie - to pay to you One Hundred Dollars - (her half) I would be glad if, I could have let the other be so applied by my necessities are such at this time that I cannot spare it - Hoping to hear from you soon -

Remain yours &c
P. Chiseldine

P.S. you will perceive - that the deed to Kelly - is a little different from the one you sent for Signature &c - The Notary thought it best - to fill up one that would release - right of dower &c of my wife - it embos all, and a little more than one sent me -

Return the Blank and you can confer with the one filled up - and signed "
