Mr. Stanley

My Dr Anna /

Phile Breakfasted with us this Morning to inform us of his intended dep ture to Farley tomorrow Morning — altho' I've not many moments to devote to you I can't think of letting him see you without a line to acknowledge yr kind favour by James — to answer the part that appears to interest you the most, I will tell you briefly that I'm particularly sorry you will not get home time enough to see yr Cousin, he intended to have left us yesterday, but my influence is such that he
