one hundred and Twenty four perches Thence North Twenty four degrees forty five minutes East one hundred and Eighty Eight perches to Long Creek Thence South forty one degrees East twelve perches Thence South three degrees East two hundred Thence South Seventy degrees Thirty minutes East fifteen perches Thence South one degree Thirty minutes East two perches Thence South Eleven degrees East twenty perches Thence South forty four Degrees Thirty minutes East six perches Thence South two Degrees East twenty four perches Thence South forty Degrees Thirty minutes West fourteen perches Thence South seventy nine degrees Thirty minutes East four degrees Thirty minutes West Eight perches Thence North Eight degrees West twenty one perches Thence South sixty three degrees Thirty minutes West sixteen perches Thence South Thirty one degrees Thirty minutes East twenty perches Thence South forty seven degrees West four perches Thence South Thirty seven degrees Thirty minutes West Eight perches Thence South Sixty three Degrees East Thirty one perches. Thence South Thirty Eight degrees Thirty minutes East forty two perches Thence with a straight line to the begin ning containing Seventy six acres of land one hundred acres of land more or less also part of three hundred of land Lying and being on East Island afore said adjoining the said Indiana Springs called the Three Log Cabbages Range and Crawford where as each and bounds the following lines marks and bounds to wit Beginning at the end of the first line of Indiana Springs and running Thence North Seventy four Degrees forty five minutes East one hundred and Thirty Eight perches to Long Creek Thence North twenty degrees fifteen minutes