early to marry a good stock from them — The South down Ram I wrote on for was intended for Mr. Thos. Ringgold who was about to settle a manufactory — but having for the present changed his plans he will not —

My information derives from an intelligent source — Speaks of political matters (at the city of Washington) as in rather a singular predicament.
The state of great uncertainty as to the course to be pursued by the next Administration, and the extreme delicate and at the same time serious part the President Elect, must adopt, and the development which he must make on the 4th of March next, has caused such feelings on the part of those, who are hanging up by the hope of office, that the active partizans are as much at a loss how to act, and as completely paralized as they possibly could be, had they consecrated the elevation of different persons —
