

a Scheme must inevitably be the result, The policy of the North is directly at variance with the views of the Southern people - The best friends the Queen has, are his Northern friends - The people of the North use him only as an instrument to effect their great object, regardless of his future political standing - This is perhaps the most singular situation a leading character has ever been placed in, in this Country, and I should not be surprised to find the next Administration, pursue ing such a course, as will lead, to the support of its measures, many of the friends of the present -

It will always afford me much pleasure to hear from you - and I trust you will occasionally think of an old friend - With best regards to your family - I remain Dear

Sincerely Yrs
G. Gilman