Christ Town 30 Sept 33

Dr Doc.

We have been sorely afflicted. Although it has pleased Providence to take a number of our Children we have never before lost one who had attained so much age. She was perhaps the most promising of our flock and certainly the darling idol of her Mother. But it is mod all directed to promote the purposes of Mercy to o

To her with a soul unspotted and unstain her for communionship with Saints and ang is altogether advantageous & it is our duty a our effort to acquiesce without a murmur t that omnipotent wisdom & goodness cannot do to be done any thing at which his frail creatures ough complain. I have been for several days in a feeble state of health & although better to-day am still languid.

My note requesting the wine to be procured did not get to my hands five minutes before the St Boat started. In the afternoon when we sent to the Office the P: Master had gone to tea & in the morning he was at breakfast. It seems he takes his meals out of the House.

A doz: of wine will be put on board the Maryland for you - put up in an old barrel. The bottles should be set on their bottoms and allowed to settle perfectly before they are used and then decanted carefully when
