almost always Calm, all though the the Sunny hours will be Some what diff = erent. we shall Sail and on all Lady days — we are now running along the Coast of New Holland, and will make the Island of Sandalwood which is near the intrance to the Straits Some time tomor = row nights or monday morning — the Sights of Land, will be a novelty to us. as we have not Seen it Since we left the Capes of the Delaware — On Monday last we Spoke an English Barque Called the Ann Robinson from London bound to Canton — 99 days out — She beat us Sail = ing — and has left us behind — the first vessel that has shown us her Stern — our Ships good Speed is fast decaying owing to her d — d Copper's Coming off which is Cas old and rotten as we Could well wish — The Barque had Several Ladies on board — the Sight of whom, was a Treat for our eyes, after being at Sea four months; and to all we many recollections (that now Seem almost old) of Rosy D Jee Quay's —