rested the whole day & I cannot tell when I suffered more from my head; Mr Window was very attentive & sent for Doct Neale, who immediately, who had me bled freely & gave me two large doses of Calts— I was confined about one week during which time the Doct attended me— the thought that the Cold had fallen on my brain from my suffering more than usual with my head— but fortunately it proved to the Contrary, & I am again restored to my usual health— I had some difficulty in persuading Mr Window from letting down & at one routing to you because I did not think it necessary to frighten you all half to death & perhaps render you Come up from your destining an affair, also as your place my Dr mother was as well filled, as I could possibly have done, by Mrs Rogers, whose kindness to me during my sickness, I shall ever remem ber, indeed I do not know if I would not almost ~~consented~~ be willing to be sick again slightly, to be surrounded with such attentive & kind nursing—P. Wormsley, has left Mr White the most delectable Item I ever heard of— I did every thing in my power to persuade him to the
