

Head of Mr 3 October 1779

Dear Sir

yours for Mr Cunney came duly to hand am sorry to Inform you that I have not obtained the Invoice and accounts of Major Black and Maxwell yet though have been Informd they are ready shall send for them on Monday next and soon after transmit them to you shall set out as soon as our Election is over to Philadelphia to make a full settlement and very soon after my return shall be able to complete a settlement with yourself, I am out of hopes of making it worth your while to purchase forage this Season as a Commission will not be allowed one 4th for let is all that is allowd me and no other wages will be allowed but by the Month which I am sure you will not take — I find I am defective in procuring wheat that I had almost given it out and should I give the height of the Market fees I should be censured, as Quartermasters and Commissary are very bad people in the Eyes of almost every one I heartily thank you for the offer, and am sorry to not in my power to accept it and remain Dear Sir your Most Obedt Servt

A Hollingsworth
D.H.E.

Colo William Kearsley